Artist Contract

Terms:

- all art/craft work will remain on display for the full duration of the show.
- artists/craftspeople will receive a 60% commission for work sold during the exhibition.
- work that is sold will be picked up by buyers at the exhibition's end. All unsold or "not-for-sale" work will be picked up by the artist on the de-installation day, Monday, February 25, 12-5 pm (preferred) or during the week of February 27-March 2, 2019, (Wed-Sat) 12 - 4 pm. Artists whose work has been sold will be notified in advance.
- the MCC / C2 Centre for Craft may document the exhibition for publication, promotional and archival purposes. The artist may request digital duplicates of the images.
- the MCC prepares promotional material (invitations, posters, press releases, catalogue, web and social media listings, etc.) for exhibitions as considered appropriate. The MCC assumes responsibility for related expenses.
- should art/craft work be unintentionally damaged while it is in the care of MCC, the MCC will be responsible for the declared insurance value or retail value of the work
